

Exclusive Offer For SG Series Customers Only

Buy a 3-year term for Xstream Protection, get an XGS Series hardware appliance and 3 years of Web Server Protection for free* plus 60% off 3 years of Central Email Advanced

[Valid until September 30, 2022]

If you are an SG Series customer looking for the right time to switch to Sophos Firewall and the XGS Series, that time is now. This exclusive offer provides unbeatable incentives, with 99% discount on an XGS Series hardware appliance, 1% discount on Xstream Protection, 100% discount on a 3-year subscription of Web Server Protection and 60% discount on Central Email Advanced.

This offer is valid for SG Series replacement/renewals only. (Central Email Advanced is also eligible as a first time purchase for existing SG customers).

THE BENEFITS:

- Powerful Protection and Performance: Sophos Firewall and the XGS Series provide a significant performance boost over all previous firewall models. The Xstream architecture accelerates important cloud, SaaS and other trusted traffic to free up resources on the main CPU for important deep packet inspection and TLS decryption for the traffic that needs it.
- The Next Generation: Sophos Firewall OS offers many features not available in Sophos UTM today and now has exciting SD-WAN features, more advanced offloading using the Xstream Flow Processor in the XGS Series, and much more. Central Email Advanced is the best choice for customers moving from Sophos UTM with valued features such S/MIME now available.
- More than a Firewall: Sophos Central opens up a complete ecosystem of possibilities with central management and reporting for one or more firewalls, plus management for all your other Sophos solutions.
- Xstream Protection: A single license bundle for advanced protection with Network, Web and Zero-Day Protection plus Central Orchestration for SD-WAN VPN orchestration and a 30-day Central Reporting Advanced data retention period.

*Discount on XGS hardware (99%) and Xstream (1%) is equivalent to or higher than the MSRP of the hardware appliance.
